Concord Group Insurance's ESP+ Package provides you with added protection – and peace of mind – at a minimal cost.

There are a range of potential property or personal injury liabilities that may impact you when you least expect them to. Protect yourself from these potential scenarios with Concord Group Insurance's Extra Security Protection Plus (ESP+) package. ESP+ extends the limits of your existing personal insurance policies at a very reasonable cost.

This package covers liabilities resulting from theft or an uncommon event, such as character defamation, or bodily injury sustained by someone attempting to harm you or your family. ESP+ provides you with the coverage you and your family need to rebuild, refurnish, recover, and restore your possessions and peace of mind. This added protection can save you hundreds or thousands of dollars in liability – for a surprising low cost.
