- Understand your enrollment options. Start with an overview
 - Plan to enroll on time to avoid penalties and delays in coverage, depending on when is best for you.
 - If you plan to enroll in your Initial Enrollment Period, set a reminder for yourself for 3 months before your 65th birthday.

4 Months Before Turning 65:

- Compare plans for coverage packages
- Calculate costs per month/year for:
 - Premiums
 - Deductibles
 - Co-pays & coinsurance
- Talk to a benefits advisor to get detailed information about plans. See if you qualify
 - Make sure to ask these important questions:
 - Will I have to choose hospital and healthcare providers from a network?
 - Will my doctors accept the coverage? If not, are there doctors near me who will?
 - Will I need referrals to visit specialists?
 - Will the plan cover me if I get sick while traveling in another state?
 - What will my prescription drugs cost?
 - Are my drugs on the plan's drug list (or formulary)?
 - Does the plan include the pharmacies I currently use?
 - Can I get my prescriptions through the mail?
 - Does the plan have a good quality rating?
- Make your decision.
